

KINGSKERSWELL PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCIL

(St Mary's Parish Church, Church End Road, Kingskerswell, Newton Abbot TQ12 5LD)

Data Protection Policy

Kingskerswell Parochial Church Council (PCC) is a registered charitable trust and is collegiately responsible and accountable for this policy.

Everyone working within the PCC and Kingskerswell Parish Church is bound by this policy.

The PCC members, volunteers and all individuals or representatives for companies working with the PCC are all bound by the GDPR and should sign a relevant consent or agreement, undertaking to manage data responsibly and within the law.

Whilst the PCC members are jointly and equally liable as the Data Controller, and whilst not necessary, a specific individual should be identified as the GDPR Responsible Person, to formally administer GDPR requirements.

The PCC is a body responsible to manage data and will conform to the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR). This is delivered through our Privacy Notice Declaration, as detailed in sections 1 to 9 below and, as necessary, supplemented by the PCC General Consent form.

1. Your personal data - what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is now enshrined in law, governed by the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Kingskerswell Parochial Church Council (PCC) is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a community service;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of our church and community;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities pertaining to our charity;

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and keep you informed about relevant events.

- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Gift Aid or under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other relevant or appropriate parties with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the national GDPR

Specifically, we retain registration data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; partner details and any safeguarding documentation permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC holds about you;

- The right to request that the PCC corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means];
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
